2019-20 G.J. Lieberman Fellowship Application Guidelines
School of Humanities & Sciences

DESCRIPTION
The Lieberman Fellowship is awarded to doctoral students in the later stages of their doctoral program who have the potential for leadership roles in the academic community and for promising careers in university teaching and research.

You must be nominated by your department before submitting an application. Contact your department graduate student services administrator for details about the department’s selection process.

Read more on the H&S Graduate and Undergraduate Studies website: https://humsci.stanford.edu/current-students/fellowships-and-funding

ELIGIBILITY
Doctoral students (PhD or DMA) in the humanities, arts, social sciences, and natural sciences who:
- Is in the first 5 years of their doctoral program
- Intends to pursue a career in university teaching and research
- Has demonstrated leadership in and service to the Stanford academic community
- Will be enrolled in all 3 quarters (Autumn, Winter, and Spring) the year the award is disbursed

Enrollment in Summer Quarter is optional but will be covered.

Questions about eligibility should be directed to: gus_fellowships@lists.stanford.edu.

DEADLINES

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SUBMISSION DEADLINE</th>
<th>NOTIFICATION</th>
<th>FUNDS ISSUED BY</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>February 22, 2019</td>
<td>Early May</td>
<td>Mid-September</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

AWARD
The Lieberman award covers one year of tuition up to the TGR rate for 4 quarters, plus a fellowship stipend equivalent to a Stanford Graduate Fellowship (SGF). The fellowship stipend will be disbursed over 4 quarters.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES AND MATERIALS
The online application and instructions can be found at: https://humsci.stanford.edu/current-students/fellowships-and-funding
Lieberman Application Instructions

To apply for the Lieberman fellowship, the following application materials must be submitted:

Student Profile
Complete the student profile and online application. To access the online application at https://humsci.stanford.edu/current-students/fellowships-and-funding, scroll down to Lieberman Fellowship, click on button “Apply Now”.

Application Statement
In an essay of no more than 3 pages, address the following:
- Your research areas of interest and anticipated contributions
- Your future career plans

Unofficial Transcript
Attach a current unofficial Stanford transcript from Axess that lists your degree milestones. Please do not submit an official Stanford transcript (including electronic transcripts).

Curriculum Vitae

Teaching Statement
In a statement, summarize your teaching experience at Stanford.
- Title and numbers of the courses taught
- Year and the quarter the courses were taught
- Number of students enrolled in the courses

Course Evaluations
Attach up to 3 recent course evaluation summaries from Stanford courses you taught or served as the TA. If Axess course evaluation summaries are not available, you may submit other forms of student evaluations. Consult with Vice Provost for Teaching and Learning (VPTL) about other available forms of student evaluations.

University Service
Description of the commitment to Stanford’s academic excellence that extends beyond research and teaching. Which may include service to:
- The discipline
- The University
- The community within or beyond Stanford University

Examples could be serving in a leadership role, serving on committees, and engaging in outreach activities.

Letters of Recommendation
Two letters from faculty, one of which should be from your academic advisor. Both letters should address:
- Your academic achievements and promise as a scholar and a leader in the academic community
- Your teaching career at Stanford
It is highly recommended that you notify your advisor well in advance of the application deadline to provide them with adequate time to write their letter. In the online application system, you can request a letter from your advisor before you submit your own application materials.