Georges Lurcy Fellowship Program
2019-2020

The Georges Lurcy Charitable and Educational Trust offers fellowships to outstanding American doctoral students for advanced graduate study and research in France during the 2019-2020 academic year.

The Lurcy foundation invites the broadest range of topics without exclusion of any field of study, time period, or preference as to any department. However, the foundation prefers to fund research topics with contemporary relevance.

ELIGIBILITY
Doctoral candidates (PhD and DMA) who:
- Are U.S. Citizens or Permanent Residents
- Will be enrolled at Stanford or at an educational institution in France during the tenure of the fellowship
- Have a research project connected to contemporary French language, culture, or civilization

Questions about eligibility should be directed to: gus_fellowships@lists.stanford.edu.

Lurcy Application Instructions

To apply for the Lurcy Fellowship Program, the following application materials must be submitted:

Student Information
Complete the student profile and Lurcy online application. To access the online application at https://humsci.stanford.edu/current-students/fellowships-and-funding, scroll down to Lurcy, click on button “Apply Now”.

Project Title and Summary
Brief outline of the dissertation project no more than 1000 words. Your summary should:
- Include a brief outline of your dissertation project, highlighting its relevance to contemporary French language, culture, or civilization
- Discuss your language skills for the research project
- Explain why you would like to study in France, as well as your anticipated length of stay in France

Curriculum Vitae

Unofficial Transcript
Attach a current unofficial Stanford transcript from Axess that lists your degree milestones. Please do not submit an official Stanford transcript (including electronic transcripts).

Undergraduate Transcript

Letter of Recommendation
A letter of recommendation from your academic advisor who should address specifically your eligibility for the Lurcy award.

It is highly recommended that you notify your advisor well in advance of the application deadline to provide them with adequate time to write their letter. In the online application system, you can request a letter from your advisor before you submit your own application materials.
