

Graduate Research Opportunity Funds (GRO)

Graduate Research Opportunity Funds for Modern British History and Culture (GRO-MBHC)

The School of Humanities and Sciences awards Graduate Research Opportunity (GRO) funding of up to $5,000 to support doctoral student dissertation research. This funding is incremental and does not replace other funding that the student may receive to support their dissertation research.

Thanks to a gift from a generous donor, GRO funds are also available to students pursuing dissertation research related to modern British history and culture (GRO-MBHC).

ELIGIBILITY

Doctoral students (PhD or DMA) in the humanities, arts, and social sciences who:

- Have been admitted to candidacy
- Have an approved dissertation proposal
- Are making satisfactory academic progress
- Will be enrolled in the quarter in which GRO or GRO-MBHC funds will be disbursed

Questions about eligibility should be directed to: gus\_fellowships@lists.stanford.edu.

DEADLINES

There are two GRO and GRO-MBHC application cycles this year:

SUBMISSION DEADLINE	NOTIFICATION	FUNDS ISSUED BY
November 5, 2019	Early December	Mid-December
April 9, 2020*	Mid-May	Late May

*Applications for summer research funding should be submitted in the Spring submission cycle.

FUNDING

Funding is competitive and not all proposals will be funded. The maximum GRO or GRO-MBHC award is $5,000. Applicants are encouraged to apply for other sources of funding, but may not accept multiple sources of funding to cover the same research expenses.

GRO and GRO-MBHC Application Instructions

To apply for GRO or GRO-MBHC funds, complete the student profile and online application. To access the online application at <https://humsci.stanford.edu/current-students/fellowships-and-funding>, scroll down to GRO and click on button “Apply Now.”

Project Title and Summary

Briefly describe your research for a general audience, as members of the selection committee may not have subject-specific knowledge in your field. Your summary should:

- Provide an overview of your research problem or question
- Describe the research methods you are using
- Summarize how you plan to use the requested funds
- Indicate the status of your project (at what stage you are in your dissertation research?)
- Not exceed 2 pages

Budget

Provide a line-item budget identifying:

- Expenses for which you are requesting funding
- Other funding for this project for which you have applied (e.g., VPGE DDRO, NSF, etc.)
- Other research funding that you have already obtained for this project

Eligible Expenses

- Travel related to research data collection (e.g., transportation, accommodation, meals)
- Supplies, excluding computers or computer hardware
- Services (e.g., data entry or transcription)
- Payment to human subjects for participating in research (IRB approval required)
- Payment to undergraduates (department approval required)

Ineligible Expenses

- Stanford cost of attendance (e.g., tuition, health insurance, etc.)
- Travel related to job interviews or conferences
- Non-travel living expenses
- Computer purchases

For an additional list of eligible and ineligible expenses, see FAQ's (<https://stanford.box.com/s/rorqwzt7l25oogw8kx1on3tuhq01qvv5>).

Institutional Review Board (IRB)

If applicable, indicate whether you have received IRB approval for your project and the IRB approval number.

Reference

Your advisor will need to complete a required reference form that confirms that:

- You have been admitted to candidacy
- You are making satisfactory academic progress
- Your dissertation research project has been approved
- Your research project for this funding request is reasonable and can be completed as proposed

It is highly recommended that you notify your advisor well in advance of the application deadline to provide them with adequate time to complete the reference form. In the online application system, you can request that your advisor fill out the reference form before you submit your own application.
